DEBTORS' SUPPLEMENT TO SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTION TO LEAD PLAINTIFFS' SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADING IN FURTHER SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR LIMITED MODIFICATION OF AUTOMATIC STAY

Delphi Corporation ("Delphi") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), hereby respectfully submit, with respect to the Lead Plaintiffs' Motion For A Limited Modification Of The Automatic Stay filed on November 15, 2005 (Docket No. 1063) (the "Motion"), this supplement to the Debtors' Supplemental Objection to the Motion filed on March 19, 2007 (Docket No. 7344) (the "Supplemental Objection").

The Supplemental Objection opposed the Motion on two independent and separate grounds: first, that the Motion remains premature because the Debtors had recently filed a motion for reconsideration of the order lifting the stay of litigation pending motions to dismiss in securities actions imposed by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act ("PSLRA"); and second, that the lifting of the PSLRA stay does not constitute cause for relief from the Bankruptcy Code's automatic stay and that Lead Plaintiffs have not otherwise shown cause for relief from the automatic stay.

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan earlier today denied the Debtors' motion to reconsider lifting the PSLRA stay. A copy of the opinion is attached as Exhibit A. The Debtors accordingly withdraw the portion of the Supplemental Objection which contends that any ruling on the Motion would be premature.

The Motion, however, should nevertheless be denied because the Lead Plaintiffs have failed to show cause for relief from the automatic stay. As explained in the Supplemental Objection, the "undue prejudice" standard for relief from the PSLRA stay is substantively different than and distinct from the "cause" standard for relief from the automatic stay. Although Lead Plaintiffs argue that the finding of undue prejudice under the PSLRA constitutes cause under section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, a consideration of the Sonnax factors quickly dispels that notion and demonstrates in this case that there is no cause for lifting the automatic stay.

MOTIONS FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE COURT’S ORDER PARTIALLY LIFTING PSLRA DISCOVERY STAY

At a session of said Court, held in the U.S. Courthouse, Detroit, Michigan on March 21, 2007

PRESENT: Honorable Gerald E. Rosen
United States District Judge

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter is presently before the Court on the motions for reconsideration filed by certain Delphi Defendants<sup>1</sup> and Defendant Deloitte & Touche LLP seeking reversal or clarification/limitation of the Court’s February 15, 2007 Opinion and Order granting Lead Plaintiff’s motion for partial modification of the PSLRA discovery stay. Having reviewed and considered the Defendants’ briefs and the entire record of this matter, the

Court concludes that reconsideration of the Court's February 15 Order is not warranted.

II. DISCUSSION

The grounds for the granting of motions for reconsideration are set forth in Eastern District of Michigan Local Court Rule 7.1(h)(3):

(h) Motions to Alter or Amend a Judgment or for Rehearing or Reconsideration.

(3) Grounds. Generally, and without restricting the discretion of the Court, motions for rehearing or reconsideration which merely present the same issues ruled upon by the Court, either expressly or by reasonable implication, shall not be granted. The movant shall not only demonstrate a palpable defect by which the Court and the parties have been misled but also show that a different disposition of the case must result from a correction thereof.

Defendants have not met these standards.

The Delphi Defendants

First, to the extent that Defendants rely on In re Refco, 2006 WL 2337212 (S.D.N.Y. 2006), a case that was decided after briefing on Lead Plaintiffs' motion to lift the PSLRA stay was completed, although the Court acknowledges that in Refco, the court was not persuaded that lifting the PSLRA stay was warranted, the fact that Refco reached a result different from that reached by this Court and the Worldcom<sup>2</sup> and Enron<sup>3</sup> courts, does not demonstrate a "palpable defect" by which the Court has been misled or that a different disposition of the case is required. Indeed, the Court specifically noted in its

February 15, 2007 Opinion and Order that “[c]ourts that have addressed whether the PSLRA allows for a partial lift of the discovery stay when the material sought have already been disclosed to government agencies have reached contrary conclusions.” [2/15/07 Opinion and Order, p. 11 (Citations omitted.)]

Furthermore, Defendants cannot dispute that any inquiry into the lifting or modification of the stay requires an examination of the circumstances presented in the particular case before the court, yet they appear to have disregarded the fact that in Refco, the court declined the invitation to lift the stay because it found insufficient indicia of “undue prejudice” under the particular circumstances presented there.

As evidence of their being unduly prejudiced by the PSLRA discovery stay, the plaintiffs in Refco pointed to a settlement that one of the principal defendants, BAWAG P.S.K. Bank für Arbeit und Wirtschaft und Österreichische Postsparkasse Aktiengesellschaft (“BAWAG”), had already entered into with the government and plaintiffs in other parallel actions. The Refco plaintiffs argued that this settlement would “reportedly exhaust BAWAG’s ability to pay to resolve the Class’[s] claims in this Action.” The court, however, found this argument unpersuasive because, after filing their motion to lift the stay, the Refco plaintiffs themselves successfully obtained a settlement with BAWAG. By contrast, in this case, Plaintiffs have not obtained settlements with any of those Defendants who have consented to substantial money judgments against them in the SEC case or with any of the individuals or entities involved in the Delphi bankruptcy proceeding.

Defendants also argue that the Court should reconsider its decision because they contend that Lead Plaintiffs are not “losing ground” in light of settlements connected with the SEC investigation and Delphi’s bankruptcy proceeding. The Court has already considered and ruled upon these matters, either expressly or by reasonable implication. Defendants’ disagreement with the Court’s opinion as to the impact of the various settlements and settlement talks on the Plaintiffs’ position in this litigation is an insufficient basis for the Court to reconsider its prior Order.

In the alternative, the Delphi Defendants ask, if the Court does not reconsider its ruling, that it clarify or modify its February 15 Order to provide that Lead Plaintiffs not be entitled to discovery of documents collected pursuant to the Delphi’s internal investigation that have not been produced to the SEC or that have not been specifically identified as relating to the SEC’s investigation. Delphi complains that to the extent the Order contemplates production of materials never produced by Delphi to the SEC, DOJ, FBI or the U.S. Postal Inspector, the voluminous amount of documents and electronic data that would have to be reviewed for responsiveness and privilege “could occupy thousands of hours of attorney time at a cost of many millions of dollars.”

The Court has already considered this issue in its original ruling and, as noted therein, the recent amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure -- specifically the amendments to Rule 26 -- provide a number of mechanisms to alleviate the concerns expressed by Defendants. See 2/15/07 Opinion and Order, p. 18-19, n. 17. The Court specifically points to new Rule 26(b)(2)(B) which allows a party from whom discovery is sought to seek on motion a protective order to avoid discovery of electronically stored information upon a showing that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. The Court also points to the various techniques suggested in the 2006 Advisory Committee Note to Rule 26 that the parties may use, including a “sneak-peek” (or “quick-peek”) protocol and “claw back agreements.” These are all avenues that are available to the parties in this action.

For these reasons, the Court declines the invitation to clarify or modify its previous ruling.

Deloitte & Touche

Defendant Deloitte & Touche (“D&T”) also seeks reconsideration of the February 15 Order. Although D&T does not dispute that it produced records in conjunction with the internal investigation conducted by the Delphi Audit Committee and admits that it has produced documents to the SEC, it argues that it should not have to produce these documents to Plaintiffs here because it is not negotiating any settlement with the Commission or with Delphi. D&T further contends -- without any factual support or citation of legal authority -- that even if it were negotiating with the SEC, “that obviously would not impact its capacity to deal with the plaintiffs.” Because it is not engaged in any settlement negotiations, Defendant argues that Plaintiffs will not be “unduly prejudiced” by the PSLRA stay remaining in place with respect to D&T. The Court disagrees for the reasons previously stated in the February 15 Opinion and Order.

Defendant relies upon In re Royal Ahold N.V. Sec. Litig., 220 F.R.D. 246 (D. Md.

2004), in support of its contention that the stay should not be lifted as to D&T. In that case, the court lifted the PSLRA stay as to the corporate defendants to allow the plaintiffs to obtain discovery of materials produced by Royal Ahold and USF to government investigators and in the corporations' internal investigations, but declined to lift the stay as to Deloitte & Touche, the company's auditors. However, it was not because it found that the plaintiffs would not be prejudiced if the stay was not lifted as to D&T. The court, in fact, acknowledged that the plaintiffs would be prejudiced because other litigants in other proceedings were able to obtain discovery that the plaintiffs were denied. The court, nonetheless, was persuaded not to lift the stay as to the auditors because it was of the opinion that the plaintiffs' case against the auditors was weak:

As to undue prejudice, it is true that other litigants may seek discovery from Deloitte & Touche notwithstanding the PSLRA, just as they may from Royal Ahold and USF, yet the strength of the securities plaintiffs' case against Royal Ahold's accountants is not as apparent, making it less appropriate to lift the stay in light of the PSLRA's purposes.

220 F.R.D. at 253

This Court is not inclined to consider the strength or weakness of any party's case for the purpose of making a determination as to the lifting of the PSLRA stay. Furthermore, there is nothing in the statute or the legislative history that suggests that a court should consider the strength or weakness of the plaintiff's case in deciding whether to lift the stay.

In sum, the Court finds that Deloitte & Touche has failed to demonstrate a palpable defect by which the Court and the parties have been misled or that a different disposition of the case must result from a correction thereof.

CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Delphi Defendants and Deloitte & Touche's
Motions for Reconsideration of the Court's February 15, 2007 Opinion and Order are DENIED.

P. 2002(m), 3007, 7016, 7026, 9006, 9007, And 9014 Establishing (i) Dates For Hearings Regarding Objections To Claims And (ii) Certain Notices And Procedures Governing Objections To Claims (Docket No. 6089) (the "Claims Objection Procedures Order"), the proposed order granting the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection, and the notice of the deadline for responding to the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection. C. The Claims listed on Exhibit A-1 hereto under the column heading "Claim To Be Expunged" are either duplicates of Claims filed with the Court or have been amended or superseded by later-filed Claims.

D. The Claims listed on Exhibit A-2 hereto under the column heading "Claim To Be Expunged" are either duplicative of other Claims or have been amended or superseded by later-filed Claims, and are survived by two Claims.

<sup>1</sup> Findings of fact shall be construed as conclusions of law and conclusions of law shall be construed as findings of fact when appropriate. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7052. Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Tenth Omnibus Claims Objection.

E. The Claim listed on Exhibit B hereto was filed by an individual noteholder ("Individual Holder Claim") and is duplicative of the consolidated proof of claim filed on August 2, 2006 by Wilmington Trust Company.

F. The Claims listed on Exhibit C-1 hereto were filed by holders of Delphi Corporation common stock solely on account of their stock holdings ("Equity Claims").

G. The Claims listed on Exhibit C-2 hereto were filed by holders of Delphi Corporation common stock solely on account of their stock holdings and were also untimely pursuant to the Bar Date Order ("Untimely Equity Claims").

H. The Claims listed on Exhibit D hereto were filed by creditors to protect against future rejection damages ("Protective Claims").

I. The relief requested in the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties-in-interest.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. Each "Claim To Be Expunged" listed on Exhibit A-1 and A-2 hereto is hereby disallowed and expunged in its entirety. Those Claims identified on Exhibit A-1 and A-2 as "Surviving Claims" shall remain on the Debtors' claims register, but shall remain subject to future objection by the Debtors and other parties-in-interest.

2. The Individual Holder Claim listed as a "Claim To Be Expunged" on Exhibit B hereto is hereby disallowed and expunged in its entirety. The Claim identified on Exhibit B as "Surviving Claim" shall remain on the Debtors' claims register, but shall remain subject to future objection by the Debtors and other parties-in-interest.

3. Each Equity Claim listed on Exhibit C-1 hereto is hereby reclassified as an interest, and is disallowed and expunged as a claim in its entirety.

4. Each Untimely Equity Claim listed on Exhibit C-2 hereto is hereby reclassified as an interest and as such is disallowed and expunged in its entirety.

5. Each Protective Claim listed on Exhibit D hereto is hereby disallowed and expunged in its entirety, subject to the right of affected creditors set forth on Exhibit D under paragraph 8 of the Bar Date Order to assert a Claim for rejection damages in the event of a rejection of an executory contract or an unexpired lease by the Debtors.

6. With respect to each Claim for which a Response to the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection has been filed and served, each of which Claims is listed on Exhibits E and F hereto, the hearing regarding the objection to such Claim is adjourned to a future hearing date to be noticed by the Debtors consistent with and subject to the Claims Objection Procedures Order; provided, however, that such adjournment shall be without prejudice to the Debtors' right to assert that any such Responses were untimely or otherwise deficient under the Claims Objection Procedures Order.

7. Entry of this order is without prejudice to the Debtors' right to object to any other claims in these chapter 11 cases, or to further object to claims that are the subject of the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection, on any grounds whatsoever; provided, however, that solely to the extent that (a) a claimant filed duplicative claims against different Debtors for the same asserted obligation (the "Multiple Debtor Duplicative Claims") and (b) certain of such claimant's Multiple Debtor Duplicative Claims are being disallowed and expunged hereby, the Debtors shall not seek to have the claimant's remaining Multiple Debtor Duplicative Claim (the "Remaining Claim") disallowed and expunged solely on the basis that such Remaining Claim is asserted against the incorrect Debtor, provided that one of the Multiple Debtor Duplicative Claims was originally filed against the correct Debtor. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided in the preceding sentence, the Remaining Claims shall remain subject to further objection on any grounds whatsoever, including, without limitation, that any such Remaining Claim is asserted against the incorrect Debtor if the claimant did not file a Multiple Debtor Duplicative Claim against the correct Debtor. Nothing contained herein shall restrict the Debtors from objecting to any Remaining Claim or any holder of a Remaining Claim from seeking relief from this Court for the purposes of requesting that this Court modify the Debtor or Debtors against which such Remaining Claim is asserted.

8. Nothing contained herein shall constitute, nor shall it be deemed to constitute, the allowance of any claim asserted against any of the Debtors.

9. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over the Debtors and the holders of Claims subject to the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation of this order.

10. Each of the objections by the Debtors to each Claim addressed in the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection and set forth on Exhibits A-1, A-2, B, C-1, C-2, D, E, and F hereto constitutes a separate contested matter as contemplated by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014. This order shall be deemed a separate order with respect to each Claim that is the subject of the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection. Any stay of this order shall apply only to the contested matter which involves such Claim and shall not act to stay the applicability or finality of this order with respect to the other contested matters covered hereby.

11. Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC is hereby directed to serve this order, including exhibits, in accordance with the Claims Objection Procedures Order.

12. The requirement under Rule 9013-1(b) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York for the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law is deemed satisfied by the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection.

DEBTORS' OMNIBUS REPLY IN SUPPORT OF DEBTORS' EIGHTH
OMNIBUS OBJECTION (PROCEDURAL) PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §
502(b) AND FED. R. BANKR. P. 3007 TO CERTAIN (A) DUPLICATE AND AMENDED CLAIMS, (B) CLAIMS DUPLICATIVE OF CONSOLIDATED
TRUSTEE CLAIM, (C) EQUITY CLAIMS, AND (D) PROTECTIVE CLAIMS

Delphi Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"),<sup>1</sup> hereby submit this omnibus reply in support of the Debtors' Eighth Omnibus Objection (Procedural) Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. § 502(b) And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3007 To Certain (A) Duplicate And Amended Claims, (B) Claims Duplicative Of Consolidated Trustee Claim, (C) Equity Claims, And (D) Protective Claims (the "Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection"), and respectfully represent as follows:

1. The Debtors filed the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection on February 15, 2007 seeking to disallow and expunge certain "Claims," as that term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(5), because such Claims (a) are duplicative of other Claims or have been amended or superseded by later filed Claims, (b) are duplicative of the aggregate liability asserted by two different Claims or have been amended or superseded by two different Claims, and are survived by such two different Claims, (c) were filed by an individual noteholder and are duplicative of the consolidated proof of claim filed on its behalf by Wilmington Trust Company, (d) were filed by holders of Delphi common stock solely on account of their stock holdings, (e) were filed by holders of Delphi common stock solely on account of their stock holdings and were untimely-filed pursuant to the Bar Date Order, and (f) are merely protective in nature. The Debtors sent to each claimant whose proof of claim is subject to an objection pursuant to the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection a personalized Notice Of Objection To Claim, which specifically identified such claimant's proof of claim that is subject to an objection and the basis for such objection.

Responses to the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection were due by 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern time) on March 15, 2007.

2. As of March 21, 2007 at 12:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern time), the Debtors had received six timely-filed formal responses to the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection (collectively, the "Responses"). A chart summarizing each of the Responses by respondent is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The six Responses were filed by holders of 15 Claims. As set forth on Exhibit A hereto, the Debtors have agreed to adjourn to a future date the claims hearing with respect to the 15 Claims for which Responses were filed. The revised proposed order, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Revised Order"),<sup>2</sup> reflects the adjournment of the hearings with respect to the claims for which Responses were filed.

3. Pursuant to the Order Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. § 502(b) And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(m), 3007, 7016, 7026, 9006, 9007, And 9014 Establishing (i) Dates For Hearings Regarding Objections To Claims And (ii) Certain Notices And Procedures Governing Objections to Claims (Docket No. 6089) (the "Claims Objection Procedures Order"), the hearing with respect to each of the Claims for which a Response was filed will be adjourned to a sufficiency hearing or claims objection hearing, as appropriate, to determine the disposition of each such Claim. The Revised Order reflects the adjournment of Claims for which Responses were received to a future hearing date pursuant to the Claims Objection Procedures Order.

4. In addition to the Responses, the Debtors also received informal letters, e-mails, and telephone calls from various parties requesting clarification of the relief requested in the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection (the "Informal Responses"). Certain of these respondents requested that the Debtors reverse the "Surviving Claim" and the "Claim To Be Expunged" listed on Exhibit A to the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection. The proposed exhibits to the Revised Order reflect the resolutions agreed to regarding each of these Informal Responses.

5. Except for those Claims for which a hearing has been adjourned to a future hearing date, the Debtors believe that the Revised Order adequately addresses the concerns of the respondents. Thus, the Debtors request that the Court grant the relief requested by the Debtors and enter the Revised Order.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request that this Court enter an order (a) sustaining the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection, subject to the modifications reflected in the Revised Order, (b) adjourning the hearing with respect to all Claims as to which a Response was filed pursuant to the Claims Objection Procedures Order, and (c) granting the Debtors such other and further relief as is just.

Responses To The Debtors' Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection Organized By Objector<sup>1</sup>

	RESPONSE	PROOF OF CLAIM NOS.	SUMMARY OF RESPONSE	RESOLUTION OR PROPOSAL	ORDER MODIFICATION (IF ANY)
1.	Alliance Precision Plastics Corporation (Docket No 7125)	11575	Alliance Precision Plastics Corporation ("Alliance") asserts that it filed two proofs of claim, one against Delphi Corporation and one against Delphi Automotive Systems LLC, because it was uncertain which of the Debtors the liability should be asserted against. Alliance further asserts that its claim is secured by Alliance's possession of various molds and equipment used to manufacture parts ordered by the Debtors. Alliance notes that claim no. 11574 was previously objected to by the Debtors' Third Omnibus Objection, and that objection remains pending. Alliance states that it cannot consent to the disallowing of claim 11575 without confirmation that claim 11574 will be reconciled and is properly filed against the correct Debtor.	Adjourn

2.	Donald R. and Sarah E. Sweeton (Docket No. 7130)	11198	Mr. and Mrs. Sweeton (the "Sweetons") own property that is leased (the "Lease") to Delphi Automotive Systems LLC ("DAS LLC") in Lawrenceburg, Tennessee. The claim is based on the damages the Sweetons would allegedly suffer if DAS LLC rejected the Lease. The Lease has not been assumed or rejected. The Sweetons assert that they would be prejudiced by the time, effort, and expense they would face by having to file a second proof of claim should their lease be rejected.	Adjourn
3.	Hyundai Motor America <sup>2</sup> (Docket No. 7214)	15590, 15591, 15593, 15594	Hyundai Motor America ("Hyundai") asserts that the Objection should be overruled because it fails to provide any evidence to overcome the prima facie validity of Hyundai's claims. Hyundai further asserts that the claims are not duplicative on their face, and that the supporting documentation for the expunged claims is different from that for the surviving claim. Finally, Hyundai asserts that it would likely not be protected by the "multiple debtor duplicate claim" language in the proposed order.	Adjourn

4.	Hyundai Motor Company <sup>3</sup> (Docket No. 7217)	15584, 15586, 15588, 15595	Hyundai asserts that the Objection should be overruled because it fails to provide any evidence to overcome the prima facie validity of Hyundai's claims. Hyundai further asserts that the claims are not duplicative on their face, and that the supporting documentation for the expunged claims is different from that for the surviving claim. Finally, Hyundai asserts that it would likely not be protected by the "multiple debtor duplicate claim" language in the proposed order.	Adjourn
5.	Contrarian Funds, LLC (Docket No. 7276)	6991, 14878	Contrarian Funds, LLC ("Contrarian") asserts that Wright Plastic Products Co., LLC ("Wright") transferred Wright's interest in both proof of claim number 14878 ("Claim 14878") and number 16447 ("Claim 16447"), but that the Debtors wrongly allege that Wright is the holder of Claim 16447. Contrarian asserts that it does not oppose the disallowance of Claim 14878, provided the Debtors recognize Contrarian as the legal and beneficial owner of both Claim 14878 and Claim 16447 and "the Court allows [Claim] 16447 in full as a claim held by Contrarian." Contrarian also asserts that the Debtors wrongly allege that proof of claim number 16386 ("Claim 16386") is held by Hain Capital Holdings, LLC ("Hain"), that Contrarian contacted Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC ("KCC") and that KCC confirmed it mistakenly listed Hain as the holder of Claim 16386. Thus, Contrarian asserts that it does not oppose the disallowance of proof of claim number 6991, provided "the Court allows [Claim] 16386 in full as a claim held by Contrarian."	Adjourn

<sup>3</sup> Although the Response references the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection, Hyundai Motor America's claims were the subject of the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection, and thus the Debtors are construing the Response as a response to the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection.

Intermet Corporation and SPCP Group LLC as assignee of Intermet Corporation (Docket No. 7280)	14107, 15770	Intermet Corporation and SPCP Group LLC as assignee of Intermet Corporation (collectively, the "Claimants") assert that they will not consent to the disallowance and expungement of proof of claim numbers 14107 and 15770 as duplicative of claim number 14489 ("Claim 14489") unless the Debtors confirm that Claim 14489 is properly filed and allowed in the amount asserted. <sup>1</sup> Findings of fact shall be construed as conclusions of law and conclusions of law shall be construed as findings of fact when appropriate. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7052. Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Tenth Omnibus Claims Objection.

E. The Claim listed on Exhibit B hereto was filed by an individual noteholder ("Individual Holder Claim") and is duplicative of the consolidated proof of claim filed on August 2, 2006 by Wilmington Trust Company.

F. The Claims listed on Exhibit C-1 hereto were filed by holders of Delphi Corporation common stock solely on account of their stock holdings ("Equity Claims").

G. The Claims listed on Exhibit C-2 hereto were filed by holders of Delphi Corporation common stock solely on account of their stock holdings and were also untimely pursuant to the Bar Date Order ("Untimely Equity Claims").

H. The Claims listed on Exhibit D hereto were filed by creditors to protect against future rejection damages ("Protective Claims").

I. The relief requested in the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties-in-interest.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED

2. The Individual Holder Claim listed as a "Claim To Be Expunged" on Exhibit B hereto is hereby disallowed and expunged in its entirety. The Claim identified on Exhibit B as "Surviving Claim" shall remain on the Debtors' claims register, but shall remain subject to future objection by the Debtors and other parties-in-interest.

3. Each Equity Claim listed on Exhibit C-1 hereto is hereby reclassified as an interest, and is disallowed and expunged as a claim in its entirety.

4. Each Untimely Equity Claim listed on Exhibit C-2 hereto is hereby reclassified as an interest and as such is disallowed and expunged in its entirety.

5. Each Protective Claim listed on Exhibit D hereto is hereby disallowed and expunged in its entirety, subject to the right of affected creditors set forth on Exhibit D under paragraph 8 of the Bar Date Order to assert a Claim for rejection damages in the event of a rejection of an executory contract or an unexpired lease by the Debtors.

6. With respect to each Claim for which a Response to the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection has been filed and served, each of which Claims is listed on Exhibits E and F hereto, the hearing regarding the objection to such Claim is adjourned to a future hearing date to be noticed by the Debtors consistent with and subject to the Claims Objection Procedures Order; provided, however, that such adjournment shall be without prejudice to the Debtors' right to assert that any such Responses were untimely or otherwise deficient under the Claims Objection Procedures Order.

7. Entry of this order is without prejudice to the Debtors' right to object to any other claims in these chapter 11 cases, or to further object to claims that are the subject of the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection, on any grounds whatsoever; provided, however, that solely to the extent that (a) a claimant filed duplicative claims against different Debtors for the same asserted obligation (the "Multiple Debtor Duplicative Claims") and (b) certain of such claimant's Multiple Debtor Duplicative Claims are being disallowed and expunged hereby, the Debtors shall not seek to have the claimant's remaining Multiple Debtor Duplicative Claim (the "Remaining Claim") disallowed and expunged solely on the basis that such Remaining Claim is asserted against the incorrect Debtor, provided that one of the Multiple Debtor Duplicative Claims was originally filed against the correct Debtor. For the avoidance of doubt, except as expressly provided in the preceding sentence, the Remaining Claims shall remain subject to further objection on any grounds whatsoever, including, without limitation, that any such Remaining Claim is asserted against the incorrect Debtor if the claimant did not file a Multiple Debtor Duplicative Claim against the correct Debtor. Nothing contained herein shall restrict the Debtors from objecting to any Remaining Claim or any holder of a Remaining Claim from seeking relief from this Court for the purposes of requesting that this Court modify the Debtor or Debtors against which such Remaining Claim is asserted.

8. Nothing contained herein shall constitute, nor shall it be deemed to constitute, the allowance of any claim asserted against any of the Debtors.

9. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over the Debtors and the holders of Claims subject to the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation of this order.

10. Each of the objections by the Debtors to each Claim addressed in the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection and set forth on Exhibits A-1, A-2, B, C-1, C-2, D, E, and F hereto constitutes a separate contested matter as contemplated by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014. This order shall be deemed a separate order with respect to each Claim that is the subject of the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection. Any stay of this order shall apply only to the contested matter which involves such Claim and shall not act to stay the applicability or finality of this order with respect to the other contested matters covered hereby.

11. Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC is hereby directed to serve this order, including exhibits, in accordance with the Claims Objection Procedures Order.

12. The requirement under Rule 9013-1(b) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York for the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law is deemed satisfied by the Eighth Omnibus Claims Objection.

DEBTORS' OMNIBUS REPLY IN SUPPORT OF DEBTORS' NINTH OMNIBUS
OBJECTION (SUBSTANTIVE) PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. § 502(b) AND FED. R.
BANKR. P. 3007 TO CERTAIN (A) INSUFFICIENTLY DOCUMENTED CLAIMS,
(B) CLAIMS NOT REFLECTED ON DEBTORS' BOOKS AND RECORDS, (C)
UNTIMELY CLAIMS, AND (D) CLAIMS SUBJECT TO MODIFICATION

Delphi Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"),<sup>1</sup> hereby submit this omnibus reply in support of the Debtors' Ninth Omnibus Objection (Substantive) Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. § 502(b) And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3007 To Certain (A) Insufficiently Documented Claims, (B) Claims Not Reflected On Debtors' Books And Records, (C) Untimely Claims, And (D) Claims Subject To Modification (the "Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection"), and respectfully represent as follows:

1. The Debtors filed the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection on February 15, 2007 seeking to disallow and expunge certain "Claims," as that term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(5), because such Claims (a) contain insufficient documentation in support of the Claims asserted, (b) contain insufficient documentation in support of the Claims asserted and were untimely-filed pursuant to the Bar Date Order, (c) reflect liabilities or dollar amounts that are not contained in the Debtors' books and records, (d) reflect liabilities or dollar amounts that are not contained in the Debtors' books and records and were untimely-filed pursuant to the Bar Date Order, (e) were untimely-filed pursuant to the Bar Date Order, or (f) are subject to modification of the asserted amount or classification, and/or change in the identity of the alleged Debtor. The Debtors sent to each claimant whose proof of claim is subject to an objection pursuant to the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection a personalized Notice Of Objection To Claim, which specifically identified such claimant's proof of claim that is subject to an objection and the basis for such objection. Responses to the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection were due by 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern time) on March 15, 2007.

2. As of March 21, 2007 at 12:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern time), the Debtors had received 70 timely-filed formal docketed responses, three formal but untimely-filed docketed responses, and 14 undocketed responses (collectively, the "Responses") to the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection. A chart summarizing each of the Responses is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3. The Debtors believe that 14 of the Responses (collectively, the "Resolved Responses") have been resolved. Eleven of the Resolved Responses pertain to Claims for which the Debtors seek to change only the identity of the alleged Debtor, but do not seek to modify the dollar amount or classification. Counsel for the Debtors contacted each of these respondents to clarify the scope of the relief sought with respect to these Claims. As a result of these clarifications, each of these 11 respondents agreed to the relief requested in the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection with respect to that respondent's Claim, and the Debtors believe that these 11 Responses have been resolved.

4. Additionally, one of the Resolved Responses asserted that the claimant agrees with the relief requested by the Debtors in the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection, and thus the Debtors believe that this Response has been resolved. Also, one of the Resolved Responses asserts that the claimant withdrew its three Claims prior to the filing of the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection. Because these three Claims were indeed withdrawn, the Debtors believe that this Response is Resolved. Finally, the Debtors have agreed to withdraw their objection with respect to a claim (the "Stephenson & Lawyer Claim") covered by one of the Resolved Responses, and consequently the Debtors believe that this Response has been resolved.

5. Accordingly, as reflected in the revised proposed order, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Revised Order"),<sup>2</sup> the Debtors do not seek to adjourn the hearings with respect to Claims subject to the Resolved Responses, but rather seek the relief requested in the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection with respect to these Claims, except for the Stephenson & Lawyer Claim. The Debtors have agreed to withdraw its Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection with respect to the Stephenson & Lawyer Claim.

6. Pursuant to the Order Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. § 502(b) And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(m), 3007, 7016, 7026, 9006, 9007, And 9014 Establishing (i) Dates For Hearings Regarding Objections To Claims And (ii) Certain Notices And Procedures Governing Objections to Claims (Docket No. 6089) (the "Claims Objection Procedures Order"), the hearing with respect to each of the Claims for which a Response was filed, other than the Resolved Responses, will be adjourned to a sufficiency hearing or claims objection hearing, as appropriate, to determine the disposition of each such Claim. The Revised Order reflects the adjournment of the hearing with respect to each of the Claims for which a Response was filed, other than the Resolved Responses, to a future hearing date pursuant to the Claims Objection Procedures Order.

7. In addition to the Responses, the Debtors also received informal letters, e-mails, and telephone calls from various parties questioning the relief requested with the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection and seeking to reserve certain of their rights with respect thereto (the "Informal Responses"). The Debtors believe that all the concerns expressed by the Informal Responses have been adequately resolved.

8. Except for those Claims that have been adjourned to future hearing dates, the Debtors believe that the Revised Order adequately addresses the concerns of the respondents. Thus, the Debtors request that the Court grant the relief requested by the Debtors and enter the Revised Order.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request that this Court enter an order (a) sustaining the Ninth Omnibus Claims Objection, subject to the modifications made to the Revised Order, (b) adjourning the hearing with respect to all Claims as to which a Response, other than a Resolved Response, was filed pursuant to the Claims Objection Procedures Order, and (c) granting the Debtors such other and further relief as is just.

TPO asserts that the amendment accounts for prepetition claims for goods sold to the Debtors. TPO asserts that the Debtors were on notice of the nature of the claims and the potential for adjustment of the claim amount. DEBTORS' OMNIBUS REPLY TO OBJECTIONS TO SECOND
SUPPLEMENT TO KECP MOTION (DOCKET NO. 213) SEEKING AUTHORITY TO CONTINUE AIP FOR FIRST HALF OF 2007

Delphi Corporation ("Delphi") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), hereby submit this omnibus reply to the objections to the Second Supplement To KECP Motion (Docket No. 213) Seeking Authority To Continue AIP For First Half Of 2007, dated March 12, 2007 (Docket No. 7200) (the "Second Supplement") filed by the International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America ("UAW") (Docket No. 7325), the International Union of Electronic, Electrical, Salaried, Machine and Furniture Workers-Communications Workers of America ("IUE-CWA") (Docket No. 7335), the United Steel, Paper and Forestry, Rubber, Manufacturing, Energy, Allied Industrial and Service Workers, International Union, AFL-CIO ("USW") (Docket No. 7326), and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local Union No. 663 ("IBEW"), the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, Tool and Die Makers Local Lodge 78, District 10 ("IAM"), and the International Union of Operating Engineers Locals 18S and 832S ("IUOE") (Docket No. 7324), all dated March 19, 2007.<sup>1</sup>

Preliminary Statement

1. The Debtors filed the Second Supplement on March 12, 2007, ten days before the omnibus hearing scheduled for March 22, 2007, with the consent of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Creditors' Committee"). The Debtors received four objections before the objection deadline on March 19, 2007—one each from the UAW, the IUE-CWA, and the USW, and one covering the IBEW, the IAM, and the IUOE.<sup>2</sup> With the exception of these labor unions, and in contrast with the Debtors' proposals to implement the short-term annual incentive plan (the "AIP") in the first and second halves of 2006, no other party has filed an objection to the Second Supplement.

2. Most of the allegations raised by the unions are replays of arguments that were considered and rejected by this Court in connection with the Debtors' previous AIP programs. These include the contention that the Debtors should not be permitted to continue the AIP because they did not consult with the unions before filing the Second Supplement,<sup>3</sup> that continuing the AIP is inappropriate in light of the Debtors' labor-transformation objectives and will make it more difficult to reach a consensual agreement with the unions,<sup>4</sup> that the AIP constitutes an improper retention program,<sup>5</sup> that continuing the AIP now is inappropriate because a portion of the performance period has already elapsed,<sup>6</sup> and that the Debtors should defer

<sup>3</sup> While not subjected to the individual review of every Delphi stakeholder (including each of the objecting unions), the Second Supplement was vetted with and approved by two independent groups: the Compensation Committee of Delphi Corporation's Board of Directors (the "Compensation Committee") (which has such authority and responsibility under applicable Delaware law) and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Creditors' Committee") (as an independent statutory committee charged with representing the interests of all general unsecured creditors and on which two of the objecting unions serve).

<sup>4</sup> The unions would have the Bankruptcy Court conclude that it is not possible to negotiate appropriate and competitive hourly collective bargaining agreements unless the Bankruptcy Court first takes away from salaried employees their reasonable and competitive incentive programs which are indisputably an integral element of their direct compensation programs. That cannot be a result which constitutes a reasonable business judgment on the part of the Debtors and is inconsistent with earlier findings of this Court.

<sup>5</sup> Unlike "pay for stay" retention programs, the AIP program outlined in the Second Supplement provides incentive compensation only upon the achievement of performance targets vetted with and approved by the Compensation Committee and the Creditors' Committee.

<sup>6</sup> Like each of the two prior semi-annual AIP programs, the Second Supplement reaches the Bankruptcy Court for approval during the performance period because of the time and effort devoted to reviewing the Debtors' 2007 business plan and the corresponding AIP performance targets with the Compensation Committee and the Creditors' Committee. As this Court might expect, the AIP performance targets were established by the Debtors without the benefit of actual performance period results and then the AIP payout curves were negotiated with the Creditors' Committee. In that context, visibility into actual performance during the first quarter of 2007, while positive to the 2007 Business Plan, is irrelevant: just as no one would countenance the Debtors relaxing the AIP performance targets in the face of actual performance below targeted 2007 expectations neither should the Debtors' salaried employees be penalized because their contributions appear to be trending towards actual performance positive to those expectations. Moreover, implementation of the AIP until the conclusion of these chapter 11 cases.<sup>7</sup> As this Court has explained in its prior rulings, these arguments do not detract from the Debtors' reasonable business judgment that continuing the AIP is a necessary step toward achieving competitive compensation opportunities for the Covered Employees, and that the AIP offers appropriate incentives to Covered Employees to achieve the corporate- and division-level performance targets derived from the Debtors' Preliminary Business Plan.

3. The remainder of the unions' arguments are directed toward alleged deficiencies in the Preliminary Business Plan or the AIP's terms and conditions—namely, that the Preliminary Business Plan includes inaccurate assumptions regarding a labor transformation and support from General Motors Corporation ("GM"), that the Debtors have provided insufficient detail with respect to adjustments based on the outcome of negotiations with the unions and GM, and that the financial targets proposed by the Debtors are inappropriate because they are subject to adjustments by the Debtors. In fact, however, in implementing the AIP for the first half of 2007, as was the practice for the prior AIP periods, the Debtors will calculate AIP performance such that performance improvements solely related to union and GM transformation contributions will be eliminated. As for the performance targets, any adjustments in order to achieve the support of the Creditors' Committee for the Second Supplement, the Creditors' Committee required that the AIP payout curves be adjusted to increase the amount of performance in excess of plan to achieve various levels of increased incentive performance payouts. (The Second Supplemental AIP Order attached to this omnibus response as Exhibit B includes payout curves and corrected tables to the payout curves which were revised to eliminate typographical errors not material to the actual payout curves.)

<sup>7</sup> As previously announced on the record at the January 2007 omnibus hearing, the Debtors have already taken the KECP-EIP (emergence program) off the calendar and intend to incorporate that program as part of an overall competitive executive compensation program design into the Debtors' joint plan of reorganization. As a result, both this Court and the Debtors' stakeholders will be able to evaluate the emergence cash and equity incentive programs in the context of the overall plan of reorganization in the chapter 11 cases. However, not only would it not make any rationale business sense to defer the establishment of the Debtors' semi-annual KECP-AIP incentive performance programs until some point following the performance periods, it would also deprive the Debtors' salaried employees of an integral element of their compensation program design.

will be limited to the division-level targets based on the Debtors' allocation of income and expense among divisions as part of their normal budgeting process.<sup>8</sup>

Responses To Objections

A. The Debtors Have Vetted The AIP With Independent Constituencies And Are Not Obligated To Consult With The Unions Before Seeking To Continue The AIP.

4. Several unions argue that it would be improper to grant the Debtors' request for authority to continue the AIP for the first half of 2007 because the Debtors did not consult them about the AIP before filing the Second Supplement.<sup>9</sup> As explained in the Second Supplement, however, the Debtors did vet the AIP's terms and conditions with independent entities that do not include a single person eligible for incentive compensation under the AIP, including Delphi's compensation consultant, Watson Wyatt Worldwide, the Compensation Committee of Delphi's Board of Directors (the "Board"), and the Creditors' Committee, together with its financial advisors and compensation consultant. (See Second Supplement ¶¶ 9-12.) This vetting process, which is the same as the vetting process used by the Debtors in connection with the AIP as implemented in the first and second halves of 2006, is more than adequate to overcome any suggestion that the AIP is tainted by any improper self-dealing.<sup>10</sup> In light of the

<sup>8</sup> The Creditors' Committee was notified of these potential mechanical adjustments before the Debtors filed the Second Supplement. Furthermore, the Debtors have agreed to review the AIP payout calculations with the Creditors' Committee at least ten business days prior to making any AIP payments to the Covered Employees.

<sup>9</sup> The IBEW, IAM, and IUOE also take issue with the fact that the Debtors did not share the Preliminary Business Plan with them before the filing. On March 20, 2007, the Debtors distributed to all of the unions a presentation to the Creditors' Committee that details the Preliminary Business Plan's forecasts for the first half of 2007.

<sup>10</sup> At the hearing on the AIP for the first half of 2006, this Court noted in particular the important role played by the Creditors' Committee in reviewing the AIP, stating:

The official creditors' committee, which . . . is properly representative of the various constituencies in this very large case, spent a great deal of time reviewing the originally proposed annual incentive plan and negotiating its terms, and it has done so not only with vetting performed by these independent entities, there is no basis for the unions' argument that the Debtors must perform the additional step of consulting the unions before seeking to continue the AIP.

B. The Unions' Concerns Regarding Shared Sacrifice And Collective Bargaining Do Not Defeat The Debtors' Reasonable Business Judgment To Continue The AIP.

5. All of the unions contend that it is inappropriate for the Debtors to continue the AIP while at the same time it seeks to reduce its labor costs and achieve a labor transformation, and that granting the Debtors the relief they seek will make it more difficult to achieve a consensual resolution of labor issues. This Court has addressed both arguments before. With respect to the notion of shared sacrifice, for example, this Court has long recognized that the AIP and the Debtors' efforts to reduce labor costs are logically consistent in that both are essential to the Debtors' broader objective of instituting competitive compensation practices across their entire workforce. As for the notion that continuing the AIP will impede a consensual resolution of labor issues, it is the Debtors' view that the prospects for an agreement depend on the terms and conditions of the labor proposals presented to the unions, and not ancillary matters the expertise of its counsel and its members, but also its own human resources/executive compensation consultant, and it has concluded that it agrees with the debtors that, as far as the level of compensation and the targets and the measures for awarding an annual incentive for this period, that is the six month period, the plan is reasonable and satisfies its own business judgment.

(Docket No. 3414 at 242-43.) The Creditors' Committee has reached the same conclusion with respect to the AIP for the first half of 2007.

such as the AIP. This Court summarized these points in its ruling at the hearing on February 10, 2006, when it explained:

It is very hard to ask someone to make a substantial give-up, when you yourself have just received the right to obtain a bonus. And it, at a minimum, takes at least in practical terms, I would think, at least 10 minutes of explaining in any meeting where that issue's raised, if someone's willing to listen, why the fate of one, the bonus, should not really be tied to the other, and, in fact, that the request for the concession is thematically, actually related to the other, in the sense, that they're both intended to make the debtor more competitive. Nevertheless, I believe that anyone negotiating in good faith with the debtors, would ultimately have to accept that explanation. And, I think that the debtors' unions, their advisors, and the rank and file, are, first, smart enough to make the argument, the inevitable argument, and, second, smart enough also to understand the debtors' and my response.

(Docket No. 3414 at 249-50; accord id. at 102-03, 158-59; Docket No. 4996 at 100.)

6. The competitiveness rationale is particularly compelling here because none of the unions have disputed the fact that, without the incentive-compensation opportunities available under the AIP, the Debtors' executive-compensation structure ranks in the bottom 25% when compared to the compensation opportunities offered by Delphi's peers. (See Second Supplement ¶ 13.) It is also important to remember that the AIP was part of the Covered Employees compensation structure before the Debtors filed their voluntary petitions. As such, authorizing the Debtors to continue the AIP will merely restore an element of executive compensation that was available to the Covered Employees prepetition and move the Debtors' toward a market-competitive compensation structure. (See Exhibit C to this omnibus reply.)

7. With respect to the impact of the AIP on labor negotiations, the unions have objected each time the Debtors have sought authority to implement competitive semi-annual incentive programs. However, since this Court issued its Order Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 And 363 Authorizing The Debtors To Implement A Short-Term Annual Incentive Program (Docket No. 2441) (the "AIP Order") on February 17, 2006, there has been substantial progress toward a consensual resolution of the Debtors' labor transformation issues, including the agreement among the Debtors, the UAW, and GM on a special attrition program in March 2006 and a supplement to that program in June 2006, and the agreement among the Debtors, the IUE-CWA, and GM on a similar special attrition program in June 2006. The Debtors also voluntarily suspended their Motion For Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 1113(c) Authorizing Rejection Of Collective Bargaining Agreements And Under 11 U.S.C. § 1114(g) Authorizing Modification Of Retiree Welfare Benefits (Docket No. 3035) (the "Section 1113 And 1114 Motion") in January, 2007 in connection with this Court's approval of the Debtors' Expedited Motion For Order Authorizing And Approving The Equity Purchase And Commitment Agreement Pursuant To Sections 105(a), 363(b), 503(b) And 507(a) Of The Bankruptcy Code And The Plan Framework Support Agreement Pursuant To Sections 105(a), 363(b), And 1125(e) Of The Bankruptcy Code (Docket No. 6179).

8. The fact that there has been significant movement toward a consensual resolution since this Court issued the AIP Order undercuts the unions' argument that continuing the AIP for an additional six-month period will stall negotiations. As this Court noted at the hearing on February 10, 2006, it is hard to accept that "the mere fact that an executive is getting more money is going to . . . be the deciding factor here." (Docket No. 3414 at 103.)

C. The AIP Is Not Subject To The Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention And Consumer Protection Act Of 2005 And, In Any Event, Does Not Constitute A Retention Program.

9. Several of the unions characterize the AIP as a retention program, and go on to argue that it would be inappropriate to implement a retention program here, either because of alleged defects with retention programs in general, the particular facts and circumstances of this case, or the new restrictions on retention programs established by the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 (the "BAPCPA"). As a threshold matter, because the Debtors commenced these chapter 11 cases before the BAPCPA's general effective date of October 17, 2005, the BAPCPA's restrictions on retention programs do not apply here. More importantly, as this Court expressly found at the AIP hearing in July 2006, the AIP "is not a [r]etention o[r] severance program." (Docket No. 4996 at 102.)

10. Although all elements of compensation induce employees to remain employees to some degree, the AIP does not constitute the kind of pay-to-stay program that one typically associates with a retention program. The AIP does not offer Covered Employees any compensation opportunities whatsoever for merely remaining in the Debtors' employ. Instead, the AIP provides opportunities for incentive compensation, but only when the Debtors achieve or exceed their corporate- or division-level performance targets. And even if the Debtors do reach or exceed those targets, each Covered Employee who is eligible to receive incentive compensation must undergo a review of his or her individual performance, with the potential for downward adjustments of incentive compensation to zero if the Covered Employee is designated a poor performer or otherwise fails to meet expectations.

11. Given that the incentive-compensation opportunities provided under the AIP are contingent upon the Debtors' financial performance and each Covered Employee's individual performance, the AIP is not a retention program. Accordingly, the unions' criticisms of retention programs and their assertions that such a program is unnecessary in light of the facts and circumstances of this case do nothing to advance their objections to continuing the AIP for the first half of 2007.

D. The AIP Provides Covered Employees With Appropriate Incentives Despite The Fact That A Portion Of The Performance Period Has Already Elapsed.

12. In its objection, the IUE-CWA points out that the hearing on the Second Supplement will occur some twelve weeks into the six-month performance period at issue here. Based on this timing, the IUE-CWA asserts that it is all but certain that the Debtors will achieve their performance targets for the first half of 2007, and that the AIP cannot have any incentive effect with respect to the weeks that have already past. The timing of the Debtors' filing of the Second Supplement (and the contested hearing) was driven largely by the Debtors' strong desire to complete their AIP discussions with the Creditors' Committee and obtain the Creditors' Committee's support before filing the Second Supplement, which happened in early March 2007. The Debtors filed the Second Supplement as soon as practicable thereafter, on March 12, 2007.

13. There is no evidentiary basis for the IUE-CWA's contention that the timing of the Second Supplement makes the AIP's performance targets easy to achieve. This Court should reject the IUE-CWA's argument for that reason alone. See In re Lionel Corp., 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983) (explaining that, under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, an objector "is required to produce some evidence respecting its objections"); In re Enron Corp., 335 B.R. 22, 28 (S.D.N.Y. 2005) (same). Moreover, the IUE-CWA's unsupported position that the performance targets are too low is inconsistent with the considered conclusions of the Compensation Committee and the Creditors' Committee (of which the IUE-CWA is a member), both of which determined that the performance targets were set at an appropriate level.

14. With respect to the incentive effect of the AIP, the hearing on the Debtors' previous AIP proposals also took place when the performance periods were underway. The contested hearing on the Debtors' request to implement the AIP for the first half of 2006 was held on February 10, 2006, approximately six weeks into the performance period, and the hearing on continuing the AIP for the second half of 2006 was on July 19, 2006, approximately three weeks into the performance period. Not only does the IUE-CWA's assertion that the timing of the Second Supplement prevents the AIP from having any meaningful incentive effect conflict with the judgments reached by the Compensation Committee and the Creditors'

Committee, but the position also ignores the practical reality that the Covered Employees have been managing the Debtors continuously during the performance period with the objective of maximizing business enterprise value for all of the Debtors' stakeholders. The implication of the IUE-CWA's argument—that the Covered Employees would wait until after the Court's approval of the Second Supplement to seek to perform in the best interests of the Debtors' estates—should be soundly rejected by this Court.

E. There Is No Legitimate Reason To Defer The AIP Until The Conclusion Of These Cases.

15. Some of the unions propose that the Debtors defer implementation of the AIP until the conclusion of these chapter 11 cases. While this position might have some logic and rationale with respect to the KECP-EIP emergence programs (which have already been taken off calendar and incorporated into the plan of reorganization process), the unions have not offered any legitimate reason for such a delay with respect to the Second Supplement. The unions sought to defer the Debtors' implementation of the AIP on February 10, 2006, arguing that granting the Debtors' request on the eve of a then-existing deadline to file a motion under sections 1113 and 1114 would derail labor negotiations. The unions also sought to defer the AIP at the hearing on July 19, 2006, when the Debtors and the unions were still litigating the Section 1113 And 1114 Motion. The fact that some unions are urging deferral now, when litigation regarding the Section 1113 And 1114 Motion has been suspended indefinitely, suggests that the unions will always favor deferring the AIP, without regard to the facts and circumstances as they exist at that time.

16. This Court identified this very problem at the hearing in February 2006, when it rejected the argument that the hearing on the Debtors' request for authority to implement the AIP for the first half of 2006 should be adjourned in light of the impending deadline to file a motion under sections 1113 and 1114. The Court explained:

it appears to me that if I did not approve this AIP today, I would be approving it at some point, because it is reasonable. I don't really see a logical reason to defer that beyond the inevitable push back that the debtors would receive. [T]hey would receive that push back inevitably, I believe, at any time.

(Docket No. 3414 at 250; accord id. at 162 (stating, "I hope that a request for an adjournment is not just putting off the day when people have to do explaining").)

F. The Unions' Objections To The AIP's Terms And Conditions Are Not Well-Founded.

17. In addition to the procedural and general objections discussed above, a number of the unions also raise two specific arguments regarding the terms and conditions of the AIP. The first, presented by the UAW, the IBEW, the IAM, and the IUOE, challenges the Preliminary Business Plan's assumptions regarding a labor transformation and support from GM and the nature of any adjustments under the AIP if the actual outcome of the negotiations with the unions and GM differ from those assumptions. The Preliminary Business Plan does assume that the Debtors will achieve a labor transformation and benefit from support obligations undertaken by GM effective January 1, 2007, and it is obvious that those events have yet to occur. This does not mean, however, that the Preliminary Business Plan is inadequate for purposes of establishing AIP performance targets, or that the Covered Employees will be eligible for incentive compensation based on assumed or actual savings resulting from the Debtors negotiations with the unions and GM.

18. The assumed costs and savings associated with the labor transformation and GM support are built into the Preliminary Business Plan and the AIP performance targets. To the extent that the costs and savings actually achieved by the Debtors differ from those assumptions, the Debtors will adjust EBITDAR (at the corporate level) and OIBITDAR (at the division level) to negate the impact of any such difference under the AIP. The critical point is that this adjustment leads to the same outcome that would arise if the net savings were not included in the AIP target or the Debtors' results in the first instance. Thus, there is no functional difference between using EBITDAR-UG and OIBITDAR-UG in setting the AIP targets and measuring the Debtors' financial performance (as the Debtors did in prior periods), on the one hand, and making the adjustment described above, on the other. Both methods ensure that Covered Employees do not receive incentive compensation under the AIP because of savings achieved as a result of the Debtors' ongoing negotiations with the unions and GM.

19. The second objection directed at the terms and conditions relates to the Debtors' performance targets. In the Second Supplement, the Debtors explained that the division-level AIP targets are subject to adjustments based on the Debtors' allocation of income and expense among the divisions in the ordinary course of business. (See Second Supplement ¶ 7 n.6.) Seizing on this disclosure, the IBEW, the IAM, and the IUOE assert that the Debtors are seeking the "authority to institute an AIP . . . based on targets which will be set at Debtors' discretion, without further court review." (Docket No. 7324 ¶ 24.)

20. Contrary to the unions' argument, the adjustments referenced in the Second Supplement are not matters of discretion, but instead are mechanical alterations that flow from the Debtors' normal business practice of allocating income and expense items to the appropriate division. Those items are not included in the division-level performance targets submitted to this Court because the allocation process will not be completed until later in the performance period (the corporate-level target will not change). The only alternative to this approach would be to strip out the allocated income and expense items at the end of the first half of 2007, a process that is far more burdensome than adjusting the targets and yet would achieve no additional benefit to the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, or the parties here. In addition, the Debtors notified the Creditors' Committee and its professional advisors of this issue during their AIP discussions, and have committed to reviewing any adjustment with the Creditors' Committee as soon as they become available.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter a Second Supplemental AIP Order in substantially the form of that attached to this omnibus response as Exhibit B and grant the Debtors such other and further relief as is just.

SUMMARY OF OBJECTIONS TO SECOND SUPPLEMENT TO KECF MOTION (DOCKET NO. 213) SEEKING AUTHORITY TO CONTINUE AIP FOR FIRST HALF OF 2007

Objection	Objector(s)	Response
The Debtors did not consult with the labor unions with respect to continuing the AIP for the first half of 2007.	UAW (7325) IUE-CWA (7335) IBEW, IAM, and IUOE (7324)	The terms and conditions of the AIP were approved by the independent Compensation Committee of Delphi's Board, deemed reasonable by the Debtors' compensation consultant, and vetted with and approved by the Creditors' Committee, together with its financial advisors and compensation consultant. There is no requirement that the Debtors take the additional step of consulting with the unions.
The Debtors did not share the Preliminary Business Plan with the unions.	IBEW, IAM, and IUOE (7324)	The Debtors provided the unions with a presentation detailing the Preliminary Business Plan's financial forecast for the first half of 2007 on March 20, 2007.
It is inappropriate to reward executives at the same time the Debtors are asking union-represented workers to make sacrifices.	UAW (7325) IUE-CWA (7335) USW (7326) IBEW, IAM, and IUOE (7324)	The AIP and the Debtors' labor-transformation objectives are both designed to implement competitive compensation practices for all employees, and all parties benefit when the Debtors achieve the performance targets established by the AIP.

Continuing the AIP will make it more difficult for the Debtors reach a consensual agreement with the unions.	UAW (7325) IUE-CWA (7335) USW (7326) IBEW, IAM, and IUOE (7324)	The AIP is separate from the issues in the labor negotiations, and the outcome of one should not affect the outcome of the other.
The Preliminary Business Plan includes inaccurate assumptions regarding the timing of achieving a labor transformation and support from GM.	IBEW, IAM, and IUOE (7324)	The Debtors will adjust their actual financial results to the extent the outcome of the negotiations with the unions and GM differ from the assumptions in the Preliminary Business Plan. As such, any inaccuracy will not affect the incentive compensation awarded under the AIP.
The Debtors seek to set financial performance targets for the first half of 2007 at their discretion.	IBEW, IAM, and IUOE (7324)	As explained in the Second Supplement, the Debtors' division-level targets (but not the corporate-level target) are subject to normal-course adjustments as income/expense held at the corporate level during the formulation of the Preliminary Business Plan is allocated to the divisions. The Debtors have informed the Creditors' Committee of these adjustments and will share the updated targets with the Creditors' Committee as soon as they become available.

The Debtors have not explained how their financial results will be adjusted to ensure that the AIP does not reward participants based on the outcome of negotiations with the unions and GM.	UAW (7325)	For purposes of calculating financial results under the AIP, the Debtors will make a dollar-for-dollar adjustment to the extent that the outcome of the negotiations with the unions and GM differ from the assumptions in the Preliminary Business Plan.
The fact that a portion of the performance period has already elapsed makes it easier to achieve the performance targets and reduces the AIP's incentive effect.	IUE-CWA (7335)	The financial performance targets were derived from the Preliminary Business Plan, which the Debtors began to develop in the summer of 2006, and which was approved by Delphi's Board in February 2007. The targets have been reviewed and approved by the independent Compensation Committee and the Creditors' Committee.
The AIP is a retention program.	IUE-CWA (7335) IBEW, IAM, and IUOE (7324)	The AIP is not a retention program. It does not reward Covered Employees for merely remaining on the job. Instead, the AIP provides opportunities to earn incentive compensation based on the Debtors' financial performance at the corporate and division levels and each Covered Employee's individual performance.
It is inappropriate to implement a retention program because (1) the Debtors are reducing their workforce and (2) the Debtors have not experienced difficulties attracting and retaining key employees.	IBEW, IAM, and IUOE (7324)	See response to retention point above.
Retention programs do not work and are bad for morale.	IUE-CWA (7335)	See response to retention point above.
The AIP violates section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 ("BAPCPA").	IBEW, IAM, and IUOE (7324)	See response above. Furthermore, the BAPCPA does not apply to these cases because they were filed before the BAPCPA's effective date.

Further continuation of the AIP should be deferred until these chapter 11 cases are concluded.	IUE-CWA (7335) IBEW, IAM, and IUOE (7324)	The AIP furthers the Debtors' objective of providing competitive compensation practices for all employees and provides appropriate incentives to Covered Employees to achieve their individual performance goals and the Debtors' financial performance targets. None of these benefits can be realized if the AIP is deferred.

SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER UNDER 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 AND 363
AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO CONTINUE AIP FOR FIRST HALF 2007

("SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL AIP ORDER")

Upon the Second Supplement To KECP Motion (Docket No. 213) Seeking Authority To Continue AIP For First Half 2007 (the "Second Supplement"), dated March 12, 2007, of Delphi Corporation ("Delphi") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"); and upon the declarations of Nick Bubnovich, John D. Sheehan, and Craig G. Naylor, each executed March 12, 2007; and after consideration of any objections to the Second Supplement filed by any party; and upon the record of the hearing held on March 22, 2007 on the relief requested in the Second Supplement, including the Court's consideration of the testimony and exhibits; and this Court having determined that the relief requested in the Second Supplement is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties-in-interest; and this Court having entered an Order Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 And 363 Authorizing The Debtors To Implement A Short-Term Annual Incentive Program (Docket No. 2441) ("AIP Order"), dated February 17, 2006, and an Order Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 And 363 Authorizing The Debtors To: (A) Fix Second Half 2006 AIP Targets And Continue AIP Program And (B) Further Adjourn KECP Emergence Incentive Program Hearing (Docket No. 4660) (the "Supplemental AIP Order" and together with the "AIP Order," the "AIP Orders")<sup>1</sup>; and it appearing that proper and adequate notice of the Second Supplement was given and that no other or further notice is necessary; and after due deliberation thereon; and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:

A. The Debtors have exercised reasonable business judgment in seeking the authority to implement a short-term annual incentive plan ("AIP") covering the six-month period running from January 1, 2007 through June 30, 2007.

B. The Debtors' proposal to implement the AIP covering the first half of 2007 was proposed in good faith and is in all respects fair and reasonable.

C. It is in the best interest of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and parties-in-interest, and it is necessary to the Debtors' reorganization efforts, that the Debtors implement at this time an AIP for the period from January 1, 2007 through June 30, 2007.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

The AIP Order shall continue in full force and effect except as follows:

1. The relief requested in the Second Supplement is GRANTED.
2. The Court approves the implementation at this time of an AIP covering the six-month period from January 1, 2007 through June 30, 2007, and the Debtors are authorized, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 363(b)(1), to forthwith take all actions consistent with this Second Supplemental AIP Order that are reasonably necessary to implement an AIP for that period on the terms and conditions set forth in the AIP Orders; provided, however, that the range of incentive-compensation opportunities for Covered Employees during that period shall be determined pursuant to the payout curves attached hereto as Exhibit 1, which do not include any incentive-compensation opportunities for corporate or divisional performance that is below target. The EBITDAR target for the AIP covering the period from January 1, 2007 through June 30, 2007 shall be set at $124.1 million. The OIBITDAR targets for the same period shall be as follows: (i) Powertrain, $124.7 million; (ii) Steering, $40.4 million; (iii) Thermal Systems, $50.3 million; (iv) Electronics and Safety, $281.3 million; (v) Electrical/Electronic Architecture, $108.1 million; (vi) Product and Service Solution, $5.6 million; and (vii) Automotive Holdings Group, negative $140.4 million.

3. For purposes of the AIP covering the period from January 1, 2007 through June 30, 2007, EBITDAR and OIBITDAR shall include adjustments based on any variance between the assumptions in the Debtors' preliminary business plan for 2007 through 2011 and the terms of any agreements reached with their labor unions and/or General Motors Corporation.

4. A hearing on continuing the AIP for the performance period from July 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007 is adjourned to the July 19, 2007 omnibus hearing and shall be subject to notice to interested parties and an opportunity to object. Continuing the AIP for any additional performance period after December 31, 2007 shall be subject to notice to interested parties and an opportunity to object.

5. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over the Debtors and the Covered Employees participating in any AIP implemented pursuant to this Second Supplemental AIP Order, including without limitation for the purposes of interpreting, implementing, and enforcing the terms and conditions of any such AIP.

6. The requirement under Rule 9013-1(b) of the Local Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York for the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law is satisfied by the Second Supplement.
